

Chief Veterinarian

Greyhound Racing Victoria (GRV) is seeking to appoint a Chief Veterinarian to lead the veterinary services unit with GRV's Integrity Department. This position is at the forefront of veterinary services within the racing industry in Australia and carries with it an esteemed profile.

In order to be considered for this role you will need to be at the top of your game when it comes to veterinary science and understand the application of such in a fast-moving regulatory environment. You will have an in-depth knowledge of Greyhounds, the racing industry in Australia and understand the impacts of substances in the context of promoting a drug-free sport.

In addition to the above, you will have advanced communication skills both written and verbal, possess the ability to develop and implement strategy as well as leading from the front and bringing people along on the journey.

This position reports directly to the General Manager Integrity and will form part of the leadership team for the Integrity Department. It is essential that you hold a driver's licence and most importantly you should have an impeccable background and work history.

To be successful in this role you will have:

- Significant experience as a Veterinary clinician
- Highly developed interpersonal skills
- Be a proven leader with the ability to coach and mentor
- Demonstrable experience in developing strategy
- Strong analytical and reporting skills
- The ability to effectively establish and maintain strong relationships
- Be a team player with a positive attitude and initiative
