

Application to Use and Publish GRV Greyhound Race Fields

1. General

This document contains the prescribed application form to use and publish Victorian greyhound race fields pursuant to section 2.5.19C of the Gambling Regulation Act 2003 (Vic) (Act) and regulation 5 of the Gambling Regulation (Race Fields) Regulations 2008. Under the Act, Greyhound Racing Victoria (GRV) is the appropriate controlling body responsible for approving wagering service providers to publish and use Victorian greyhound race fields, and to impose any conditions and fees on such publication and use.

2. How to apply for approval

If your organisation is a wagering service provider and wishes to use and / or publish Victorian greyhound race fields, please complete the attached application form, sign the certification section and send it to GRV as follows:

Racefields Applications
Greyhound Racing Victoria
46-50 Chetwynd St
West Melbourne VIC 3003
Email: racefieldsadmin@grv.org.au
Fax: (03) 8329 1000

3. When you need to apply

Pursuant to the Act and applicable regulations, you must apply for approval:

- not less than 70 days before the day on which your current approval is to expire (if your organisation holds a current publication and use approval from GRV in respect of Victorian greyhound race fields); or
- not less than 70 days before the day on which the wagering service provider wishes the approval to be granted, if the wagering service provider does not hold a current publication and use approval from GRV in respect of Victorian greyhound race fields.

4. Term of approval

Approval will be granted for the Approval Period as notified by GRV, starting on the date specified in the notice of approval. Please note that GRV may revoke the approval at any time where permitted to do so under the Act.

5. Approval process

Please note that each application will be considered by GRV on a case by case basis, in light of the information provided, and by reference to the criteria that are owned at the end of this document. Failure to fully and accurately answer all the questions in the application form may result in a rejection of your application.

GRV will determine the application within the times required by the applicable regulations, which are currently:

- Not less than 10 days before the expiry of the approval, if the wagering service provider holds a current publication and use approval from GRV and makes the application not less than 70 days before that approval is to expire; or
- Not more than 60 days after receiving the application in any other case. GRV will notify the applicant in writing of its decision to grant or refuse publication and use approval not more than 7 days after the day on which the decision is made by GRV.

6. Conditions and Fees

If your organisation is granted approval:

- The conditions specified in the attached document titled 'Conditions on Publication and Use of GRV Race Fields' apply to your use and publication of Victorian greyhound race fields (these conditions are subject to change at any time); and
- It must pay the monthly fee specified in the approval notice sent to your organisation if it is granted approval.

GRV criteria used in determining approvals to use and publish Victorian Greyhound race fields information.

The following list of criteria is not intended to be an exhaustive list of the issues relevant in determining an application to use and publish Victorian greyhound race field information. However, the list does provide some indication of the types of issues that GRV considers important when determining applications.

Criteria:

- The applicant's compliance with existing gambling and racing laws;
- The applicant's compliance with any prior approvals and the applicable conditions (including the payment of specified fees);
- Any prescribed matters (if any) pursuant to section 2.5.19D (2) (a);
- The integrity of the bet-types proposed by the applicant;
- Whether approving the applicant would result in GRV breach any of its existing contractual arrangements with third parties;
- Acceptance of GRV's data supply agreement (where applicable);
- The policies and procedures adopted by the applicant in relation to suspect betting transactions and fraud;
- Adherence to applicable responsible wagering codes of practice; and
- Any other conditions, matters and issues GRV considers relevant from time to time.
