

Naming a greyhound

Before a greyhound can be named it must be at least 12 months old, and you must notify GRV that the greyhound has been vaccinated after 12 months of age. Forward the vaccine notification by email to admin@grv.org.au or by fax to (03) 8329 1000.

To apply for a greyhound name:

1. Log in to FastTrack.
2. On the blue menu, click the My Dogs tab.
3. At the top of the page, click the Apply for Dog Names link.

Tips for choosing greyhound names

The name must not:

- Contain more than 16 characters including spaces and punctuation.
- Contain more than three words.
- Be difficult to pronounce.
- Imitate common racing phrases such as "vacant box" or "box one."
- Be the name of a prominent person.
- Be the name of a well recognised thoroughbred or standard bred race horse.
- Have a religious or political connotation.
- Be offensive or discriminatory in any way.

5. You must enter a name in the first of the name fields. You can enter up to 9 other names. If the first name is unacceptable, the next name is tried. If none of the names can be used, GRV may name the greyhound.
6. Click Add Name Request.
7. Enter payment details.
8. Click Submit.
