

WEDNESDAY 16 SEPTEMBER 2020

Greyhounds have qualified for a start based on times recorded at The Meadows between 1 June & 12 September 2020.

There are three different Speed Star EVENTS which run across three different distances - 525m, 600m & 725m

Each EVENT is split into four MATCH RACES (1 v 2, 3 v 4, 5 v 6 & 7 v 8)

The odd numbered greyhound jumps from box 1 & the even numbered greyhound jumps from box 3

Two greyhounds compete in each match race with the winner taking home $5000

The overall finishing positions in each EVENT are determined by times recorded in the MATCH RACES.

This means a dog can get beaten in its MATCH and still place in the EVENT

The overall EVENT winner for each distance receives $10,000 (1st), $3,500 (2nd), $1,500 (3rd).

Robert Britton 1 BLAZING CARTIER HERE'S TEARS 2 Robert Britton

Shona Crawford 3 HE SHALL POWER KEEFE 4 Terrence Reid

Andrea Dailly 5 SUNSET BOURBSKI ROCK ON JIMMY 6 Ray Henness

Amanda Scott 7 LINE SEEKER LOOK FANCY NANCY 8 James Ennis

WATCHDOG Sunset Bourbski is probably the hottest stayer in the country at present and she has recorded some blistering wins around here and at Sandown in recent months. She has more genuine early speed than her opponent, so she is expected to gain a clear passage throughout. Look Fancy Nancy is the value runner in the race, she finally put it altogether at Bendigo last time and she posted a quick personal time here when placed behind the race favourite on the 15th of August. He Shall Power rounds out the chances, he has class on his side and has been sharpened with three 600m hit outs here in recent weeks.

Jeff Britton 1 WEBLEC HAZE MEPUNGA FELIX 2 Jeff Britton

Angela Langton 9 KEEPER OF KEYS ENTER THE SON 4 Jeff Britton

Robert Palmer 5 RUN LIKE JESS HOUDINI BOY 6 Kel Greenough

Angela Langton 7 IT'S MY PARTY MEPUNGA MAGGIE 8 Jeff Britton

WATCHDOG Great line-up with the exciting Houdini Boy expected to get the cash. He has been enormous since stepping up to middle distance range and I don't think we have seen a greyhound more suited to the head to head caper than him. With a clear run two runs back, he would have busted the 34 seconds barrier and a similar effort today will see him get the cash. Enter The Son is a beast in his own right and now comes up against reserve Keeper Of Keys after the scratching of Captain Jake. It's My Party to beat Mepunga Maggie looks one of the best head to head bets.

MATCH TIMES:

7:52pm • 8:02pm

Matthew Clark 1 CATCH THE THIEF CHRISTO BALE 2 Mark Delbridge

Mario Briganti 3 MANILA KNIGHT ZIPPING HAMISH 4 Carolyn Jones

Brendan Pursell 5 KING I AM ASTON WIZARD 6 Glenn Rounds

Robert Britton 7 ARIZONA EYES WEBLEC ACE 8 Jeff Britton

WATCHDOG Great line-up and there won't be a lot separating them in the end, however Catch The Thief should be able to pounce on the lead in his match up and if he reproduces something similar to his performance last week he should get the cash. Christo Bale will get a great run behind the Thief and that will allow him to post his fastest possible time and that may be enough for him to grab second place overall. Aston Wizard is the value in the series, if he can find a length or so in the run to the 1st marker, he will be able to put up an extremely fast overall time.
