To win a group 1 race is no easy feat.

To do it “coming from nowhere” to defeat two bonafide Group 1 stars takes it a degree of difficulty further. And that’s exactly what Hooked On Scotch did when gunning down Sennachie and Whiskey Riot to win the 2019 Adelaide Cup - a performance that safely sealed the megastar galloper 'Run of The Year'.

In a performance that sent shivers up the spine of racegoers right around the country, the Jason Thompson-trained powerhouse was at the top his game heading into the Adelaide feature with a sublime 29.19 heat win.

But doing only as Hooked On Scotch can, the freakish talent dropped from the clouds to produce one of the more stunning Group 1 wins you’ll see, and in turn delivering connections the Run Of The Year gong.

The Run Of the Year was determined from the 12 runs of the month, then by a vast panel of judges from each state. This year some 35 people cast their opinion in the nationwide poll deciding a quite conclusively that the performance of Hooked On Scotch given the importance of the event probable got him the nod, while special mention given to the effort of Good Juan at Wentworth Park.

They’re the lofty numbers that earned Anthony Azzopardi the 2019/20 Trainer of The Year Award.

The Victorian mentor enjoyed another stellar year with the collar and lead which was led of course by Whiskey Riot’s watershed victory in the Group 1 Melbourne Cup.

Not to be done there either, Azzopardi also scooped the Group 1 Australian Cup a few months later at The Meadows with Fernando’s Riot, causing an upset victory over Whiskey Riot in the time-honoured feature.

As well as wins in the Melbourne and Australian Cups, Azzopardi also guided Whiskey Riot to victory in the Group 1 Temlee the same night Just Terms tasted Group 1 glory in the Zoom Top Stayers.

Denise Fysh Award Frank and Tracey Hurst

In April 2019, the Australian greyhound industry lost a true icon with the passing of Denise Fysh after succumbing to cancer. Her passion and selfless devotion to the Hobart Club and to her home state Tasmania had a profound influence that will benefit generations to come.

Last year, in Perth, the inaugural Denise Fysh Award was presented to a young WA participant who had displayed enormous courage and resilience to overcome injuries the result of a serious traffic accident.

This will to battle the odds, no matter how insurmountable, probably best epitomizes Denise’s memory.

The 2019/20 winner of this special award had a truly rollercoaster year. From the highs of success in the Million Dollar Chase with Good Odds Harada to emergency removal of a life-threatening brain tumour – it’s pretty fair to say Frank Hurst has experienced the full spectrum of emotions.

In greyhound racing, and as we know in life, no one can do it alone and for Frank it was the unwavering support of wife Tracey that was by his side every step of the journey.

Now back at the track and training winners – the Denise Fysh Award goes to Frank and Tracey Hurst in recognition of their determination to overcome anything that dares get in the way.

The GCA Hall of Fame Inductees

It was determined by the GCA Committee that any considerations for the Hall of Fame be held over until 2020-2021. This would give the incoming inductees the sort of presentation that has been afforded those that have come before them. We look forward to the Awards night being back to normal next year when the National Championships are held in Melbourne along with the GCA Greyhound of the Year, Annual meeting and Conference is hosted by the MGRA.
